SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The DVD entitled Lilith is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

Lilith contains a feature previously examined and classified on a video recording by the Office of Film and Literature Classification (OFLC). The video recording was classified "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years", with the descriptive note "Contains explicit sex scenes" (OFLC No.300283). This decision was registered on 1 May 2003.

The DVD version contains additional material including two behind-the-scenes components, still images taken from the feature, advertising notices and two trailers similar in content to the feature. There is nothing in the DVD version that requires it to receive a different classification to that given to the video recording version.
